LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Public Service Commission may attempt to set the rates on natural gas paid by industrial users in Arkansas because of dangers looming ahead from a gas shortage and the possibility of a rate increase.

Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co. has filed a proposed policy with the PSC on steps it will take to curtail gas to industrial customers if the gas supply runs below the demand in the winter. The proposal was to become effective Oct. 1, but Thursday the PSC suspended the policy for 60 days.

The PSC wants time to investigate further, saying that "broad considerations of the appropriateness of the negotiated industrial contracts must be considered."

Don S. Smith, a member of the PSC, said later that the agency may need to have the power to set the gas rates paid by industrial users if it is to avoid making the residential users of natural gas in Arkansas shoulder an undue part of the burden of finding new gas supplies for Arkansas.

Industries that use gas in their manufacturing process negotiate contracts of up to 25 years with Arkla establishing the rate that they pay for gas. In this manner, rates are frozen for the period of the contract and the big industries pay considerably less for gas than residential users.

The industries account for only about half the gas revenues, but they use more than 60 per cent of the natural gas that flows through the Arkla system.

"We're sitting here with 60 per cent of the gas production under hard, long-term industrial contracts," Smith said. "That means that a price increase, if we're forced into one, has to fall completely on the residential and commercial customers."

GM Raises Prices on Automobiles

By A. F. MAHAN
Associated Press Writer

DETROIT (AP) — General Motors Corp. announced Thursday prices of its 1971 automobiles will average $136 more than those for 1970s, and it left the door open for a possible new increase at the end of a United Auto Workers strike which shut down GM 11 days ago.

GM had produced 208,000 of its 1971s before the UAW shut it down in a strike supporting the union's new contract demands. The Vega, priced at $2,091, went on sale Sept. 10. Buicks go on sale Oct. 3, while remaining GM lines go on sale next Tuesday.

GM said its average increase for 1971 cars was 4.2 per cent, based on sales volume and optional usage. Optional equipment is raised an average 5.2 per cent.

The smallest increase is $49 on the 6-cylinder Chevrolet of foreigners today. Two prepared to leave Cyprus to take out British subjects and one was waiting for orders to leave Beirut to remove Americans who were unable to make it to the Amman airport for Thursday's flight.

The guerrilla broadcasts claimed their forces shelled Hussein's summer palace at Al Hummar early today in retaliation for the Jordanian army's "savage attacks against us in Irbid."

Nova, and the largest, $855 for the Cadillac Fleetwood Seventy-Five limousine. The bottom Nova price, GM's lowest except for the Vega, is $2,367; the Cadillac Seventy-Five's top, $12,094.

The six-cylinder Impala four-door sedan goes from $3,141 to $3,256; the eight-cylinder hard-top from $3,323 to $3,447.

GM normally builds more than half the American-made cars sold in the United States and its prices usually set the industry pattern.

Ford has announced a price increase for 1971 which averages $17 more per car than GM. Ford and Chrysler, however, were given strike immunity by the UAW while it seeks by strike to bring GM to terms on an agreement the union later will take back to them.

GM cited increases in the cost of labor, materials and government-required pollution control devices as prime reasons for 1971 increases.

More and more people over the United States are requesting Hope's famous champion size melons each year. The combined efforts of interested citizens, merchants, civic clubs, Chamber of Commerce and the farmers themselves have brought about this enlarged market.

Each year the C of C encourages the farmers to grow the very largest melons possible by offering prizes for the 1st, 2nd and 3rd largest grown by a certain date in the Fall. These melons and other large ones are used for publicity. Pictured above is Lester Kent, right, who has grown the champion the past two years. Shown with him is B. N. Holt, Sec. Mgr. of C of C looking at a load of melons which were taken to Hollywood by Pod Rogers and Carter Russell. A week later a Meyer's Bakery Van carried the remainder of a ton of melons which will be shown on "Let's Make A Deal" September 26th at 6:30 on ABC Television. Rogers and Russell went August 31st and the taping was September 9th. If this prime National TV publicity had been paid for at advertising rates, according to Monty Hall M. C. of the show, it would have cost $38,000.00.

Open Primary Study Sought by Candidate

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The American party in Arkansas' gubernatorial candidate says the feasibility of enacting an open primary law in Arkansas should be studied.

Walter Carruth of Lexa, the candidate, said Thursday in a prepared statement that he had asked state Sen. Dan T. Sprick of Little Rock to sponsor a resolution in the Arkansas Legislative Council calling for such a study.

Carruth said that the Justice Department recently said Mississippi's new open primary law meets provisions of the Voting Rights Act of 1970.

Carruth said there will be no party primaries in the future under Mississippi's new law. He said that under the provision all candidates will be on a preferential primary ballot submitted to the voters in October 1971. He said the two candidates receiving the highest number of votes will meet in a runoff the following month.

"We have just experienced 'open primaries' by theoretically rival parties," Carruth said. "Rules restricting participation in the Democratic primary were arbitrarily disregarded, and everybody was invited to take part, particularly those who in 1968 were responsible for the re-election of Gov. Rockefeller."

"As for the Republican party, it has never, so far as I know, attempted to limit balloting in its primaries to Republicans," Carruth said.

Cambodia Trying to Link Forces

PHNOM PENH (AP) — Cambodian troops attempting to cut in two a powerful enemy force 47 miles north of Phnom Penh moved to within about a mile of a link-up early today, reliable sources said.

But North Vietnamese and Viet Cong troops continued to pour in mortar fire on the newly reinforced government troops, who are attempting to smash an enemy strong point that has stalled Cambodia's first major action of the war for nearly two weeks.

Reports from the field said the government now has more than two divisions of infantry in the battle zone at the village of Taing Kuk. Four fresh battalions reportedly arrived Thursday after the enemy beat back an attempt Wednesday to capture the town.

Cambodian officers said they were certain of victory now that they have a force six times or so larger than the enemy force believed to be in the area. However, government troops were still moving gingerly, mindful of serious casualties to several government battalions in the fighting so far.

One Cambodian element fought its way into the western outskirts of the village Thursday, the Cambodian command reported, and it was toward this force that the eastern element was reported moving.

But the distance still separating them was said to include several hundred enemy troops of the regimental-sized force believed somewhere in the area.

Earlier Thursday, Cambodian troops drove a wedge into the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong force but were halted by well-dug-in enemy positions.

Autumn-like Weather Is Forecast

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Arkansans are going to get another taste of autumn-like weather as a second cold front moves into the state. Earlier this week, a cold front moved through the state dropping temperatures and making the early morning hours chilly.

The cold front is moving in from the Colorado Rockies and is expected to move into the state late tonight.

Preceding and following the front, the U.S. Weather Bureau is predicting showers and thunderstorms.

The weather bureau says that temperatures will remain in the 70s Saturday due to the front. Highs Thursday ranged from 86 at Little Rock, Texarkana and El Dorado to 78 at Fayetteville and Harrison.

Rules Schools Can Control Hair Length

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP) — Federal Judge Paul X. Williams of Fort Smith says school authorities have the power to control the length of hair worn by male students.

Williams made the ruling Wednesday in a suit filed by a student at Northside High School in Fort Smith.

The student, Dale Carter, 20, was suspended because his hair was too long.

Williams said the Student Dress Code at the school was "reasonably related to the school system's maintenance of an effective educational process."

Williams said Carter's hair hangs over his collar in the back and over his ears and was "in deliberate violation of the Dress Code."

Carter's suit, filed Sept. 4, contended that his constitutional rights were violated by his suspension.

In another development, Stephen Parker, 17, of Piggott filed a suit in the Jonesboro division of federal District Court seeking to be reinstated as a senior at Piggott High School. Parker said he was suspended Sept. 4 because his hair was too long.

The suit alleged that the suspension violated Parker's rights of freedom of speech and self-expression.

John P. Sizemore of Little Rock, Parker's attorney, said he had been told the boy's hair hangs to his shoulders.

IMPORT (on Page one)

under the cover of a crowded Senate schedule and the enormous pressure for passage of Social Security or welfare legislation would be most unfortunate," the senators said in the letter.

Mundale stressed that American agriculture probably would be hurt first and most if Japan, for example, should retaliate against the United States for limiting its textile exports to this country.

Agricultural exports alone accounted for $6.6 billion in sales and at least 700,000 American jobs last year, opponents of the bill said.

Thurmond, in a Thursday interview, discounted the possibility of Japanese trade retaliation. "They need us a lot more than we need them," he said.

Thurmond said he still would not discount the possibility of a voluntary agreement between Japan and the United States, "now that they see how serious we are about this."

Talks between Japanese and U.S. officials aimed at reaching a voluntary agreement were ended unsuccessfully last June.

Supporters of the bill, which was reported out of the House Rules Committee Thursday under the stipulation that no amendments be added, say it will not trigger an international trade war.

They maintain the American textile industry has been particularly hard hit by competitive imports and should be protected by law.

WR Promises to Help AM&N Keep Going

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller says he will do everything in his power to keep financially troubled Arkansas AM&N College operating.

Rockefeller made the statement during a speech at a meeting of the college's alumni association. AM&N's liabilities have been reported at $1,390,000 and auditors say they have found a $90,000 shortage in the college's cash fund.

Rockefeller promised the association that the college would continue to operate.

"It must be clear to everyone that Arkansas AM&N has been forced to operate under very difficult circumstances — financially and otherwise — for many years," he said.

He said the college had done "an outstanding job of meeting many of the education needs of thousands of black students."

The fiscal problems of the predominantly Negro college are being analyzed by the Legislative Joint Audit Committee and the state Administration Department.

"Any conclusions prior to the completion of these studies would be premature and detrimental to the college and to the state," Rockefeller said.

The governor said he would call a special session of the legislature to deal with the problem "if that appears to be the only way to keep the college operating."

"However, I look upon this as a last resort, and at this time the situation is such that I am hopeful that it will not be necessary," Rockefeller said.

The first 500-mile speedway race was held on Memorial Day 1911.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TELEVISION-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Two of the most interesting projects of the new television season were put on display by ABC Thursday night: "Barefoot in the Park" and "The Odd Couple."

Both new comedy series originally were Broadway hits. Both were written by Neil Simon, and both got off to unimpressive starts on television.

"Barefoot in the Park" revolves around the adventures of a pair of young, black new-laws. It is unfortunate that the marriage between Scoey Mitchell and Tracy Reed will last only 12 weeks. Mitchell (cq) has been dropped by the show's producers after a disagreement. A dozen episodes have been completed with him as a fledgling lawyer in a prestigious New York law firm.

The initial show had his mother-in-law, employed by a Park Avenue tycoon, enlisting the young couple to help serve at a cocktail party. The young man's boss, of course, turns up at the party, upsetting the hero and resulting in a lot of dropped trays and drinks.

Nipsy, Russell and Thelma

Carpenter are the other two regulars.

"The Odd Couple" started with a show very reminiscent of the high point in the play—a rowdy stag poker game. The two characters, this time played by Tony Randall and Jack Klugman, have survived intact. Randall plays the prissy, compulsive one, still fretting over his divorce. Klugman is the lusty slob, happy to be rid of his wife and a tireless lothario.

All the screaming and arguing could become tiresome.

The comedies were followed by "The Immortal," pure action. Christopher George plays a racing car driver who is being pursued doggedly by an agent for an aging millionaire. Our hero, has blood that makes him immune to age and disease. The millionaire seeks to use him as a living blood bank.

The wild rides, careening cars, flights and narrow escapes may prove diverting.

ABC opened the evening with "Matt Lincoln," in which Vince Edwards appears as a psychiatrist interested in helping young people in trouble. In the first episode he was fretting over an unwed mother.

It was a busy, drawn out affair with a weak happy ending and little warmth or reality.

Even the presence of the skillful Patty Duke as the girl failed to give it a tone of truth. Edwards' main contribution seems to be looking worried or sympathetic and asking an occasional question.

Come back, Ben Casey.

ANSWER TO NEW YORK BACHELOR

"New York Bachelor" admits that men look at women as sexual objects, but objects to being looked upon in the same light by women! Will the double standard never die?

Since women have been relegated primarily to a sexual role by society, and judged by how well they "perform," is it any wonder that they have become "aggressive, insistent, and critical" sexually? Being sexy is all we're supposed to know—and look how well we've learned: Now we're able to be critical sexually too—just like men!

However, men are not solely at fault for this stereotyping. Both sexes have allowed themselves to be cast as sexual creatures, though human beings are not primarily sexual animals. They primarily create culture (in the anthropological sense of the term) and sex, while being a part of culture, is not the whole shooting match. We have allowed this one aspect of ourselves to be wildly exaggerated. (NOTE FROM H: Amen!!)

Women's Liberation looks forward to the day when men will be relieved of the necessity of judging their manliness by the number of women they've had, and women will be freed from judging their worth by the amount of male attention they can attract. Both will judge and be judged by internal attributes, rather than transient external ones. It's these shallow judgments that are making the quality of male-female relationships so sadly unfulfilling for all concerned.

When women have the opportunity to develop their full potential as members of society, with both the rewards and responsibilities of full citizenship, then simple possession of a man will no longer be evidence of successful womanhood. Instead, they'll be judged by how successful a human being each can make herself.—A NEW JERSEY "NOW" MEMBER.

Dear "NOW":

Thank you for your excellent letter. But—how do you make women aware that they have a potential? Given all the equality legislation in the world, most would still throw it away in a minute if the right man said those three little words, "Please Marry Me."—H.

Dear Helen:

I have just one word to say for those "liberated front" gals. If you burn your bra, don't go in for jogging!—TRIED IT

Dear Helen:

I read that sleeping on your stomach helps keep muscles firm so you won't bulge in the middle.

Then I read where if you sleep on your face, it breaks down muscles and causes wrinkling, sagging, etc. So, to have a youthful face, you should sleep on your back, but to have a better figure you should sleep on your stomach.

And then I got to thinking—we sit more than we sleep, (or just as much) and we don't get wrinkled fannies. And nobody ever slept on her neck, which gets more wrinkled than the face even, so...what am I to believe, Helen:—WORRIER

Why Date Was Chosen

April 12, 1955, was chosen as the date for the official announcement of the development of the Salk polio vaccine so it would coincide with the 10th anniversary of the death of Franklin D. Roosevelt, himself a polio victim and the founder of the National Foundation in 1938.

Bobkittens Edged by Arkadelphia

By BILL MOORE
Star Sports Writer

Fighting all the way to the finish the Hope Bobkittens were finally scored on in the last minutes of play and fell to a saddening 7-0 defeat at the hands of the Arkadelphia Beavers.

Hope is now 0-3 for the season and will face Camden next Thursday in the first home game of the year.

After a power failure delayed the game for about 30 minutes, the Bobkitten Cheerleaders started their yells and with the Hope pep squad screaming, the Bobkittens kicked off to Arkadelphia. After an exchange of the ball, Hope could only get six yards and on fourth down, after punting, pinned the Beavers back at their own eight.

Good ball control brought Arkadelphia to the Kitten 38, but penalties destroyed that drive. The remainder of the first half was about even, with the ball changing back and forth around midfield.

At halftime, with no score, it looked like another tight game was in the making and the second half proved it.

The Bobkittens took the second half kickoff and started moving, but an interception set Arkadelphia up at their own 37 yard line.

Moving into the last quarter neither team seemed had mustered up a reasonably fair drive, as most of the yardage for either team came on penalties.

With 7:15 left, Kitten Jimmy Smith recovered a Beaver fumble in Arkadelphia territory, and the Hope team was 41 yards away from a touchdown.

Small gainers by David Huddleston and Terry Smith and a penalty gave the Bobkittens a first and ten at the Beaver 10 with about 2:30 remaining. Hope could only get five yards on three plays as a fourth down with two yards needed failed after Arkadelphia defense stiffened.

As Arkadelphia took possession, it looked like either the Kittens might possibly get a safety or the game would end in a tie, but after getting to the 16 yard line with 1:17 left, something happened.

Rolling out left, Beaver quarterback Gary Benson outraced everyone and ran 84 yards for an Arkadelphia score. The extra point was good and about a minute later the game was over.

In a game filled with penalties and defensive strength it was a thriller to the end for both teams. The Kittens played a fine game and used their consistency on defense to keep the opponents out of scoring range, with the offense showing some strength at times, although they were penalty plagued most of the game.

America's Cup Race Is Delayed

By JANE M. DOZIER
NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — They've postponed the funeral indefinitely.

Australia's Gretel II was scheduled to be buried at sea Thursday with a fourth and final triumph by America's Intrepid to nail down the America's Cup for another three years.

Instead the Australians rose from the dead—and how—to beat their American rivals in a neck-and-neck homestretch race to bring the best-of-7 match to a 3-1 score for the Americans.

It may have been the most exciting finish in all the 119 years of racing for the old trophy. The result of racing luck and a racing mistake of oceanic proportion.

Intrepid's Bill Ficker took it like a skipper should. He blamed it on himself.

The one thing that isn't done in match racing such as for the cup is for a leading boat not to match every move of a trailing boat. If left uncovered, the trailing yacht can go elsewhere gambling on a wind shift or a private puff of wind to sneak by the boat ahead.

That is what happened to Gretel II when she slid past Intrepid a mile from the finish after the U.S. yacht had led all the way around the 24.3-mile triangular course and seemed a sure winner of the race and the cup. Intrepid had a seemingly insurmountable one minute, two second lead rounding the next-to-last buoy and heading for the barn, 4 1/2 miles upwind.

But the wind, which had been a fresh 13 knots from east-northeast at the start, had weakened to about six knots. More importantly it had been moving all during the race more to the east.

A windward loosely covered boat would benefit by such a shift. Coming up the sixth and last leg, Gretel II was a windward loosely covered boat when the wind shifted.

With the wind shifting 20 degrees or more, Gretel II had a better course to the finish than the leeward Intrepid.

As both Australians and Americans on the spectator craft began jumping up and down and screaming, Ficker flopped onto port tack to get in position to turn again for the buoy end of finish line.

When he realized he would cross astern of Gretel II, he tacked again and was badly headed. Gretel helmsman Jim Hardy sailed on, tacked until he could lay the line, tacked again and crossed one minute and two seconds ahead.

The crowd loved it. Gretel II was willing to race today but Intrepid called for a lay day so the next meeting in the contest will be Saturday.

Youngster Is Beaten in Tennis Play

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Crowds tend to root for the underdog and that's why a packed house at the Los Angeles Tennis Club was cheering a little 18-year-old high school graduate from Seattle.

To no avail. Jimmy Connors, the kid who knocked off a pair of international stars in his first two matches of the Pacific Southwest Tennis Open finally fell in a tough, bruising, explosion-filled match Thursday night.

The scores were 6-3, 2-6, 6-2. The winner was veteran Clark Graebner of New York. Connors, who earlier had erased Roy Emerson of Australia and Ray Moore of South Africa, got an ovation after losing for UCLA next year.

Among the top-seeded players to advance to the third round with Thursday victories were No. 1 Rod Laver, the Aussie left-hander, and No. 5 Pancho Gonzales, the 43-year-old Mali-

Colorado May Test Penn State

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer
Penn State's fourth-ranked Nittany Lions could be at one disadvantage when they play Saturday at Colorado—the hosts will be in charge of the halftime show.

The Lions won the first football meeting of the two schools, 27-3 at Penn State last year, and afterward Colorado Coach Eddie Crowder protested the halftime show had lasted too long, giving Penn State an advantage.

The Penn State-Colorado meeting is the nationally televised game, ABC at 4 p.m. EDT, on a day when No. 1 Ohio State opens its season at home against Texas A&M and second-ranked Texas plays at Texas Tech, a rival from the unpredictable Southwest Conference.

In other games involving the Top Ten teams in The Associated Press poll, No. 3 Stanford is at Oregon; No. 5 Mississippi plays Kentucky at Jackson, Miss.; Purdue is at No. 6 Notre Dame; No. 7 Southern California is at Iowa; Army is at No. 8 Nebraska; No. 20 Air Force plays No. 9 Missouri at St. Louis and No. 10 Michigan is at Washington.

Penn State opened this year with a 55-7 thrashing of Navy last Saturday to run its winning streak to 23 games and its unbeaten string to 31.

The Penn State offense counts heavily on the running of full-back Franco Harris and half-back Lydell Mitchell. With such starters as All-America tackle Mike Reid graduated, the defense looks to such as linebackers Jack Ham and Gary Hull.

No. 18 Colorado, a 16-7 winner over Indiana last weekend, counts on running back Ward Walsh to help take up the slack left with the graduation of All-American Bob Anderson. End Herb Orvis keys the defense.

In putting its No. 1 ranking on the line for the first time, Ohio State will be meeting a team that has won its first two games and already has tasted the sweetness of an upset.

Texas A&M opened the season by beating Wichita State and then upset Louisiana State 20-18 at Baton Rouge, La.

Fourteen regulars, seven each on offense and defense, are back from last year's Ohio State team that posted an 8-1 record. Rex Kern and Ron Maciejowski once again will handle the quarterbacking duties. Kern has been hampered by injuries in practice. Defensive leadership again will fall to rover man Jack Tatum.

Texas A&M will count heavily on sophomores. They came through big for the Aggies in their first two games.

Other big games Saturday include Oklahoma State at No. 11 Houston at night, Tulsa at No. 12 Arkansas, No. 13 Florida at Alabama, Oregon State at No. 14 Oklahoma, Northwestern at No. 15 UCLA, Virginia Military at No. 16 West Virginia, No. 17 Tennessee vs. Auburn at Birmingham, Ala., and Miami of Florida at No. 19 Georgia Tech.

Clay Makes Application in New York

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York State Athletic Commission had before it today an application for a boxing license from the world heavyweight champion—Cassius Clay.

World heavyweight champion was the occupation Clay, who uses the name Muhammed Ali, listed Thursday when he formally applied for a renewal of his New York license.

Deputy Commissioner Pasquale Mele accepted the application and said he would recommend acceptance when the commission acts on it Monday.

Clay flew in from Miami, Fla., where he is training for a 15-round bout with Jerry Quarry in Atlanta Oct. 26. Except for exhibitions, it will be Clay's first fight since he knocked out Zora Folley in New York March 22, 1967.

bu, Calif., senior citizen.

Laver topped Nikkil Pilic of Yugoslavia 7-5, 6-7 on tie-breaking and 6-4. Pancho eliminated England's Roger Taylor 3-6, 6-3, 6-3.

Joaquin Miller was known as the "poet of the Sierras."

DOCTOR'S MAILBAG

Full Recovery Possible After Simple Concussion

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Q—I am a man, 61. I recently suffered a concussion. Is complete recovery possible?

A—Complete recovery is the rule following simple concussion, especially when the victim is allowed to get up after 24 hours in bed and return to work within three or four days.

Q—What could cause cerebral edema? Is it commonly seen in viral encephalitis?

A—In addition to encephalitis varying degrees of waterlogging of the brain are caused by concussion, persistent high blood pressure, uremia, poisoning with heavy metals such as lead and severe chronic alcoholism.

Q—What is meant by cerebral vascular insufficiency?

A—This is a decreased blood supply to the brain, usually due to hardening of the arteries.

Q—Three months ago my son, 24, started having terrific headaches. After extensive examinations the doctor said he had hydrocephalus and that an operation is necessary. What type of surgery is done and how good are the results?

A—Various operations are used to relieve water on the brain but they all have as their purpose a shunting of the cerebrospinal fluid from the brain into the blood stream. They are more effective when done in infancy than when performed later in life.

Q—Could thinking about a brain tumor cause one?

A—No, but it could cause you to become pretty neurotic.

Q—My husband is getting a very bad memory. Is there any way to help him?

A—Much research is being done on this problem, which is essentially one of maintaining a good cerebral circulation. Drugs already available include Hydergine, Cyclospasmol, diphenylhydramine.

WIN AT BRIDGE

Use Safety Play In Rough Going

Here is a hand from "Practical Bridge" that would cause a lot of grief in almost any bridge game. When South looks over dummy, he has no trouble counting to 13 tricks with three clubs, six diamonds and the aces and kings of the major suits. He is likely to remark, "We have undercooked the hand a trifle." Then he plays out his king and queen of clubs, leads a diamond to dummy's ace, discards his seven of hearts on dummy's ace of clubs, leads a second diamond to

Use Safety Play In Rough Going

A more careful player will note that diamonds don't always divide 3-2. He may try to insure his small slam by ducking a diamond at trick two. East will win and, if East returns a spade, heart or club, South will be able to make his slam in spite of the bad diamond break. If East leads a diamond right back, things won't be quite so happy. South won't be able to collect three club tricks.

This is the time to wear both suspenders and a belt. South must give up any thought of seven and must go after six by cashing his king and queen of clubs and then ducking a diamond to East.

After this supersafety play, there will be no way to keep South from scoring three clubs, five diamonds, two hearts, two spades and game, slam and rubber.

"AM I RICH"

...this thoughtful man reflects. Men call him a captain of industry but that may not make him successful. He has no fear of the future as far as the comforts of life go but, never-the-less, he stands in pensive thought. Has he given companionship to his children? Has he taken them to the right places? How often has he sat with his family in church? Would they call him a good Father, a successful husband? Has he shared in building a good community and civic institutions?

Any man is much richer who does these things. But who is the truly rich man? What is the distinguishable mark? If he should die this night, who would miss him? Would neighbors be made poorer by his going? Would any hungry folk go without food because his hand was stayed? Perhaps he is asking the ancient question... am I rich with God? All of us should ponder, "just what will I carry into His presence when I go?" What are the qualities which make a rich person? That man is truly rich who leaves a poorer world by his going. Then come with me to church and learn of the ways of God.

Next Foo Has He Stores the Big Hope Melons Respect for the Indians

By HARRY KING
Associated Press Writer

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — In an interview with Southeast Louisiana Coach Pat Kenelly, the interviewer is a straight man.

Kenelly's team takes on Arkansas State University, the top-ranked team in the small college poll, at Hammond, La., Saturday night.

Does ASU have any weaknesses?

"If they've got a weakness, it's the way they kick off," Kenelly said. "Of course, they do it so much they'll probably improve on that."

What about ASU's offensive line?

"What bothers us are the splits in the line," Kenelly said. "Their players are so large, they spread out all across the field and we won't know where to line up."

What kind of crowd does he expect?

"Oh, we'll have a full house ... about 9,999," he said. "They like to see blood."

Then, Kenelly got serious. "They deserve to be No. 1," he said. "They've got a fantastic football team."

"The thing that impresses me the most is the way they run over you," he said. "They do a real good job of that. They butt you. People that play them better wear some good hats."

Kenelly's team dropped a 17-7 decision to ASU two years ago. The two teams did not meet last year.

"We remember some of their players quite well," he said. "Now, they're two years older, two years stronger and two years faster."

He said the Indians hadn't changed much during the two years.

"They're not going to overwhelm you with their complex system," he said. "They just beat you with hard-nosed football. They tell you where they're going to go pretty much and just dare you to get there."

"They execute so well they just something to watch them play," he said.

Kenelly said he was particularly impressed with tailback Calvin Harrell.

"He just ran over people up there at Wichita," Kenelly said. "When he carries the ball, they block out and they let the fullback lead. And, they'll pull a guard. If the fullback doesn't kill the linebacker, the guard will tromp him to death."

"I believe that with that offensive line, they'll move the ball on anybody," he said.

"They've got some football players who can play for anybody. When we were up there last time they had a linebacker named (Bill) Bergery and a tackle by the name of (Clovie) Brianey and it doesn't look like things have changed much."

Bergery is the starting middle linebacker for the Cincinnati Bengals and Brianey is a defensive end with the New Orleans Saints.

ASU opened its season with a 34-14 victory over Wichita State, a school with major college status. SE Louisiana last defeated ASU in Southeast Louisiana.

Happy Fella Winner of 'Brown Jug'

DELAWARE, Ohio (AP) — Most Happy Fella, a $12,000 purchase turned into pacing's newest million dollar gem, has left no doubt who's the boss of the 3-year-old pacers this season. His three-heat win in the $100,000 Little Brown Jug Thursday gives the Meadow Skipper colt two legs of the Triple Crown and three of the Big Four.

Stan Dancer and his prize colt, before they part company Jan. 1, will shoot for a sweep of pacing's major crowns Nov. 7 in The Messenger at Roosevelt Raceway and a crack at Bret Hanover's world record of 1:55. First comes the time trial attempt at Bret Hanover's mark at Lexington, Ky., Wednesday.

The first and third heat wins in the Jug swelled Most Happy Fella's career bankroll to $299,545 for Dancer's wife Rachael, who owns him.

The Dancers purchased him for $12,000 as a 2-year-old at the Pompano, Fla., sales. They sold him this week to Blue Chip Farm of Wallkill, N.Y., for $1 million effective Jan. 1.

Dancer, winner of previous Jugs with Lehigh Hanover and Henry T. Adios, said the 1:57 1-5 and 1:57 3-5 triumphs were perfect ones. Columbia George won the second heat in 1:57 3-5.

Most Happy Fella, who won The Adios and the Cane Futurity, pacing's big races earlier in the season, earned $53,392 for his two victories and a second place finish behind Columbia George.

Columbia George, handled by Jug rookie driver Roland Beaujeu, collected $49,921 for his triumph in the second heat, a third place finish in the opening dash and a second place finish in the windup.

The combined time of 5:52 2-5 was a world's pacing record for three heats. It eclipsed the 5:56 4-5 Muncie Hanover and Bullet Hanover clocked in the 1960 Jug over the swift half-mile Delaware County Fairground track.

A record crowd of 45,111 saw Fella Hanover take second in the first heat and wind up third in the next two races against the big two.

Wayne Lynn shown with the watermelons just after our arrival. Mr. Lynn, Manager of Tusqueles Market which is rated one of Los Angeles' best and is located in world famed Farmer's Market, saved the day by letting the melons be stored along with 25 rows of meat like that shown in picture. (This is the second year he has stored the melons for Rogers and Russell.) The melons will be shown on Monty Hall's, Let's Make A Deal, program on Saturday, Sept. 26 at 6:30 p.m.

Lightweights Set for Fight Saturday

SAN JUAN, P.R. (AP) — World lightweight boxing champion Ismael Laguna of Panama and his smoothfaced challenger from Scotland, Ken Buchanan, went through final workouts Thursday prior to Saturday's 15-round title bout at San Juan's Hiram Bithorn Stadium.

"I'll prove it's not impossible to bring a crown back to Britain, the 25-year-old Buchanan said when it was pointed out that only one other British boxer had ever won a championship outside his home soil, and that was in 1915.

Saturday's fight will be televised live, via satellite, as part of the American Broadcasting Company's Wide World of Sports program. A crowd of about 9,000 is expected at ringside for the bout, set for 2:30 p.m. EDT.

Both fighters predicted victory today. Laguna said he was faster and had more experience. Buchanan claimed he was the harder puncher and benefited from youth.

Laguna, 27, has a record of 63 wins, 6 defeats and a draw, and looked sharp against two sparring partners today.

Buchanan's only defeat in 37 decisions was to Miguel Velazquez in Spain.

Laguna is recognized by the World Boxing Association as champion although the World Boxing Council announced last week it was withdrawing recognition because of his failure to fight Mando Ramos in a rematch. Laguna won the title from Ramos last Jan. 29.

Tulsa Worked Long, Hard

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — The Tulsa Hurricane paced through a one-and-a-half-hour final review Thursday for Saturday's clash with the Arkansas Razorbacks in Fayetteville.

"We worked a little longer than usual for a Thursday practice," said Coach Claude Gibson, "because we are behind. And we are 31-point underdogs."

Tulsa spent much of the time working on the kicking game and punt protection, then stressed field goal attempts.

Jacklin Leads in Scotland Golf Play

DALMAHOY, Scotland (AP) — "The best round of my life" has put Tony Jacklin into the halfway lead of the $24,000 Wills Golf Tourney.

The young Briton, winner of the U.S. Open crown earlier this year, shot a seven-under-par 65, equalling the course record, and took a two-stroke lead over Peter Townsend, with a 36-hole score of 132.

"I should have shot 60," said Jacklin. "I missed five putts of under 10 feet on the back nine. It was the best round of my life and as near a perfect round as I will ever play."

Townsend's 87 gave him a 134. Billy Casper, the American tourist who won this year's Masters, slipped to a 71 after a first-round 66 which had given him the lead after 18 holes.

Most of the players in the tourney are from Commonwealth nations.

Bengals Will Have a Go at Detroit

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Cincinnati Bengals sprung a trap at home. Now they'll try to knock down a wall on the road—the Detroit Lions' defense.

Jess Phillips broke a 21-21 tie by racing 76 yards on a draw trap in Cincinnati's 31-21 upset of the Oakland Raiders last Sunday.

Phillips carried 15 for 130 yards, but Sunday he'll be running against a defense that allowed only 114 yards for the entire game in smashing the Packers 40-0 in Green Bay.

While the Detroit defense showed it's as tough as usual, the offense, geared around quarterback Bill Munson and running backs Albie Taylor and Mel Farr, ripped Green Bay for over 400 yards.

In other games Sunday, New Orleans is at Minnesota, Cleveland at San Francisco, Los Angeles at Buffalo, Miami at Houston, Oakland at San Diego, get Kansas City started after a at Green Bay, the New York Giants at Dallas, Philadelphia at Chicago and Washington at St. Louis.

Monday night Kansas City is at Baltimore in a nationally televised game.

New Orleans, kept from crossing the goal line in a 14-3 loss to Atlanta, must move against a Minnesota defense that allowed only 63 yards rushing in beating Kan as City 27-10.

Gary Cuozzo has been steadily erasing the memory of quarterback Joe Kapp for Minnesota fans. He hit for 12 of 20 passes for 100 yards and directed an offense that controlled the first half against Kansas City.

Cleveland, which did not stop Joe Namath but did stop the Jets 31-21 last Monday night, will be up against another passer who can turn white hot, in San Francisco's John Brodie.

Brodie was on target 17 times in 20 passing attempts for 178 yards and a touchdown in the 49ers' 26-17 upset of the Washington Redskins. Gene Washington hauled in seven of the passes for 97 yards.

The Kansas City at Baltimore game will be televised beginning at 9 p.m. EDT and will feature two of the sport's great quarterbacks.

Len Dawson will be trying to Pittsburgh at Denver, Atlanta loss to Minnesota, while Johnny Unitas will be leading the Colts in quest of a second straight victory. The Colts opened with a 16-14 squeaker against San Diego.

Deceit Gets Nod in Race at Belmont

By ED SCHUYLER JR.

Associated Press Sports Writer
Deceit, who hasn't fooled her backers very often, is expected to vie with 12 other 2-year-old fillies Saturday in the 64th running of the $50,000-added Matron Stakes at Belmont Park.

A win bet on Deceit in seven of her 10 previous starts would have put you face to face with a cashier.

The daughter of Prince John-Double Agent, owned by Canadian Edward P. Taylor, won her first six starts, then missed in the next three before winning the Astarita at Belmont Sept. 16. But in her three losses, she still was in the money with a second and two thirds.

Other probabilities for the six-furlong include Wheatley Stable's Clear Ceiling, unbeaten in two starts; Taylor's Victorian Heiress, also unbeaten in two outings; George D. Widener's Patelin, winner of the Schuylerville.

In another $50,000-added race Saturday about 12 are likely for the 11-16 mile Juvenile Stakes at Hawthorne. Heading the list are Harvey Peltier's Felonious; Michael G. Phipps' New Round and Larry Woken's and Miles Cooperman's Hook It Up.

Locust Hill Farm's Tyrant, high-weighted at 123 pounds is expected to oppose 10 in the seven-furlong, $25,000 added Atlantic City Handicap at Atlantic City. Others include Mrs. William Christmas' Terrible, Tiger, 120; Mrs. Albert Lowenthal's Tearing Around, 119, Mrs. H. Y. Hafner's Never Wink, 117, and Thaddeus Trout's Ballustrade, 116.

Missouri Valley Play Gets Started

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Missouri Valley Conference's championship race gets underway Saturday at the Fairgrounds Park in Louisville when the Cardinals host North Texas State in a contest between two winless clubs.

Elsewhere, unbeaten Tulsa travels to Fayetteville to battle tough Arkansas, Wichita State is at West Texas State, and shell-shocked Memphis State, the defending MVC king, is at Virginia Tech.

In games involving teams not competing for the MVC title, Drake hosts Nebraska at Omaha and Bradley is at Western Illinois.

Coach Rod Rust is working hard to improve the sagging offense of NTSU, which is 0-2.

"We're still having too many breakdowns on offense," he says. "The only thing to do is keep working hard to improve and hope to find the right combination."

Rust and the Mean Green have a heavy respect for the Cardinal offense which features two excellent quarterbacks, Gary Inman and John Madeya. Inman is the total offense leader in the MVC with a per game average of 98.5 yards while Madeya has the passing leadership with 19 of 27 for 186 yards per game average.

North Texas may field a juggled offense. Joe Milton is due a close look at quarterback with Lloyd Sutton a possibility at fullback.

A crowd of 20,000 is expected in Louisville for the 6 p.m. CDT kickoff.

Memphis State is still trying to forget the Ole Miss Rebels. Head coach Billy "Spook" Murphy said "It was as good an Ole Miss team as we've ever played" after Mississippi whopped them 47-13.

Way Jamieson, who led Tiger rushers with 60 yards, will lead Memphis State against the Gobblers.

One highlight of the week, will be Saturday night's game in the Buffalo Bowl when West Texas plays Wichita State. It will be the first time the Buffs have met a MVC team since they were taken into conference the past summer even though the contest is a non-conference clash.

Newcomers Making Show in Cup Play

By HARVEY HUDSON

MADRID (AP) — The English speaking countries which have long dominated the world of golf are still holding a near monopoly on the top places in the Eisenhower Cup World Amateur Golf championship, but a big share of the fireworks sprinkled over the course are being touched off by youngsters from such places as Mexico, Brazil, The Philippines and Argentina.

After the first 36 holes of the 72-hole tournament over the hilly Puerta de Hierro course outside Madrid, the United States held a comfortable seven-stroke lead Friday over Mexico and South Africa, which were locked in a second-place tie.

Then came Canada and New Zealand, tied for fourth, Britain sixth and Australia seventh.

The English-speaking countries can claim a much greater number of golfers and their teams have the strength in depth.

Still, Eduardo Unson Jr., of The Philippines, was the first round individual leader with a 69. Victor Regalado, 21-year-old Mexican had the best second-round score with a 67.

But not all the exploits that warm the heart of any golfer get to the headlines—or show up in the 18-hole total.

Take the case of Jayme Gonzalez of Brazil, a 16-year-old who clipped off six straight birdies, from the 11th through the 16th holes Friday, and wound up with a 70 after he bogeyed 17 and 18.

Then there was the happiness, and disgust, of Roberto Monguzzi of Argentina, who turned in a 77 for the second round. He was eight over par after 13 holes, then he birdied 13, 15 and 16, and missed a three-foot putt for a birdie at 17 and missed a putt of eight feet for a birdie at the 18th.

In spite of these part-round exploits, the United States was favored more than ever to capture the Eisenhower Cup for the fourth time in the seven times it has been contested since 1958.

The steady play of Tom Kite Jr. of Austin, Tex., Lanny Wadkins of Richmond, Va., and Alben Miller of Pensacola, Fla., seemed to be heading for the payoff.

None has gone above 72—or below 70—and this is the type of golf that is needed for the team event.

Marvin Giles of Richmond, Va., has had two consecutive 73s and each day his score has been thrown out of the team total because only the best three count.

The championship ends Saturday.

Prospect of Lame Duck Session

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The prospect of the first "lame-duck" session of Congress in 20 years looms after election day — despite the distaste of leaders of both houses for such a meeting.

Not all of them have abandoned hope for adjournment before the Nov. 3 elections in which all seats in the House and one-third in the Senate will be filled.

But House Speaker John W. McCormack, D-Mass., has said Congress cannot finish its work before election day without junking some major legislation.

Already 24 members of the present Congress will not be back for the new session starting in January. They have either announced their retirements, sought other offices or lost in the primaries. Casualties in the Nov. 3 elections may double the number of lame ducks.

A major objection to sessions after election day is that too many defeated members are looking for new jobs and are willing to do some legislative log-rolling to get them.

House leaders have agreed informally to a recess starting about Oct. 15 and ending the week after the election. The recess may start even sooner, since anxious members want to get home to campaign.

Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield of Montana says Congress can wrap up its business by Oct. 15. But with a filibuster developing over a proposed Constitutional amendment to elect the President by FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The U.S. Weather Bureau is predicting a 40 per cent chance of showers and thundershowers for Saturday's football game between Arkansas and Tulsa.

The bureau says mostly cloudy skies and cool temperatures will prevail during the game with temperatures in the low to mid 70s. Northerly winds at 10 to 15 miles an hour are also forecast.

U.S. Objectives on Moon More Than Samples

By HARRY F. ROSENTHAL
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — From the beginning, the U.S. objective in reaching the moon was more than just bring back samples. Otherwise, the United States might have sent an unmanned ship—just as the Russians did this week.

"I think the achievement of the Russians with an unmanned vehicle is exciting and shows a high degree of technology," Dr. George M. Low, acting administrator of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, said in an interview.

He did not go as far as Dr. Ivan F. Obraztsov, head of Moscow's Aeronautics Institute, who called the Luna 16 experiment "no less an important event from the point of view of technology" than America's placing men on the moon.

"The main thing to keep in mind is that the principal and first purpose of Apollo was not in bringing back lunar samples, but to build a space capability for the United States; to build space power and space exploration capability and to demonstrate it," Low said.

"To meet these objectives we selected manned lunar landings which would require very large booster capability, very high technology of manned flight, guidance, heat protection and environmental control systems."

Science and exploration was a secondary objective when plans were being made nine years ago, Low said, and that involved bringing back lunar material.

"It certainly wasn't the principal purpose of Apollo," Low said. "Had our sole objective in 1961 been bringing back lunar samples we might well have also chosen the unmanned route."

In retrospect, said Low, "I still say the 1961 decision was absolutely correct, because it built the space capability we set out to do. We stated in 1961 what we were going to do, we did it in the eyes of the world, on time and within the funds that we told Congress it would be."

With a demonstrated capability of landing on another celestial body, scooping up samples and returning them to earth, the Russians seemingly have some advantage for exploration of the planets.

The United States plans to launch a spacecraft called Viking in 1975 to land on Mars a year later. Viking will have a sample analysis laboratory—biochemical laboratory which will analyze Martian surface material and send back the information.

Beginning with Apollo 15, probably in July next year, U.S. spacemen will carry a small rover vehicle to the moon for much greater exploration than has been possible on the previous short walks.

"Once we had decided to go to the moon with man," said Low, "man also demonstrated he was capable as an explorer in space. There's a good example on Apollo 12 when Pete Conrad called out to Al Bean, 'Hey, look at that interesting rock over there.'"

"He saw something he'd been trained to look for. No machine can do that."

direct popular vote, the Senate would have to abandon many major measures to hit its adjournment target.

House leaders unofficially have relegated to a post-election session some major bills including a reciprocal trade measure and an industrial safety proposal.

They would like to pass before the recess an anticrime bill and the $69 billion defense appropriation bill, and re-pass the vetoed $19 billion independent offices money measure. Both would have to clear the Senate.

Eight of the 13 annual appropriation bills which finance the government still are far from enactment.

Soviet Sub Base in Cuba, Pentagon Says

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon said today it has firm indications the Soviet Union may be establishing a permanent submarine base in Cuba.

Pentagon spokesman Jerry W. Friedhelm said U.S. intelligence noted over the past few months the movement of facilities and equipment into the harbor at Cienfuegos, on the southern shore of Cuba, that could serve as support facilities for submarines.

"We are keeping a close watch on these activities and are continuing to obtain information on Soviet activities there," Friedhelm told newsmen.

He noted that although Soviet submarines have operated from Cienfuegos in the past there have been no permanent facilities in the harbor for their use.

But in the past few months, he said, Soviet ships have brought in equipment including barges that could be used for maintaining a sub base.

This equipment "makes us feel they (the Russians) may be seeking sustained submarine capabilities in the area," he said.

Friedhelm declined to discuss details of what the equipment might be but said it includes both facilities in the harbor and on the shore at Cienfuegos.

Power Still Short in Many Areas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Short on power. Long on heat, humidity and discomfort.

That was the situation for residents of the Middle Atlantic states again today. And the Weather Bureau warned that the unseasonable, three-day-old heat wave would continue through the weekend.

Power reductions or "brown-outs" remained the rule among utilities in the affected area Thursday and customers, especially large industrial users, were asked to cut back on nonessential electrical use.

There was also some easing of the crisis compared with the two previous days. Temperatures were slightly cooler in some cities than on Wednesday with the highs in New York and Washington reaching only into the 80's.

And two major generating units whose failure helped precipitate the power shortage Tuesday were put back in operation.

Art Show to Be Held at Livestock Show

Mrs. Merelyn Hearn of Paris, Texas, will judge the 4th annual Hope Art Show to be held in Fair Park next week in conjunction with the 3rd District Livestock Show. She is well-known, qualified, and a contemporary and realistic artist. Her subjects range from portraiture to landscape, and she works in watercolor, pastel, charcoal and oils. She has won many honors in the field of art, and she sells her work in many states.

Her paintings have been hung in the Egerton Hayloft Gallery in Fort Worth, Texas, where she has also taught classes. The Main Street Gallery in Arlington, Texas, and the Contemporary Gallery in Dallas, Texas, have also displayed her work. She was in the top 10 at the Contemporary Gallery to win the honor of showing her work at the Seminary South Art Festival in Fort Worth, Texas.

Mrs. Hearn has studied under Otis Lumpkin, head of the Art Department in San Angelo, Texas, Barney Delbone and Chapman Kelly, well-known artists of Dallas. She is now working on her Masters degree in Art at East Texas State University, having qualified and been placed in a special class for professional artists.

Artists from the four-states area wishing to enter the Art Show in Hope are asked to take their paintings to the old skating rink building in Fair Park Sunday, September 27 from 1 to 4 p.m.

No-Knock Drug Abuse Bill Passes House; It Reduces Penalty

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House has passed a broad narcotics control bill giving agents and judges more power while reducing the penalty for possessing a drug for personal use.

The bill eliminates all mandatory minimum sentences for controlled drugs and brings in rehabilitation and research features under a $403 million, three-year program.

A 340-6 vote Thursday sent the measure to the Senate which last January passed a more limited version.

In some instances the bill exceeds Nixon administration proposals in the drug portion of its anticrime package.

However, the no-knock authority for narcotics agents and the new judicial authority both had administration backing.

The no-knock section, which allows agents under some circumstances to enter a home unannounced, was in the Senate.

Import Quota Bill Could Hurt Shippers

By GREGG HERRINGTON
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The pending import quota bill is part of a dangerous wave of U.S. economic isolationism that could hurt American shippers, manufacturers and consumers, Sen. Walter Mondale said today as Senate opposition to the measure began to jell.

The bill—designed largely to protect the American textile and shoe industries by limiting imports of those items—"goes far beyond any concept of 'fair protection,'" Mondale said in a speech for the Senate.

"It is a Pandora's box of protectionism which openly invites higher prices to the American consumer and serious retaliation, economic isolationism and a serious setback to world trade negotiations," he charged.

Sens. Mark O. Hatfield, R-Ore., and Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., also have indicated opposition to the bill in the past two days.

Mondale and several colleagues urged Chairman Russell Long, D-La., of the Finance Committee, to reject a move by Sens. Ernest Hollings, D-S.C., and Strom Thurmond, R-S.C., to have the House bill attached to an otherwise popular piece of legislation such as a social security bill before bringing it before the full Senate.

Some Timely Tips on Various Ways to Tell a Woman From a Man

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Now that woman has been liberated and declared equal to man, only one problem remains—how do you tell her from him?

Short of sworn testimony by a physician after a medical checkup, it is difficult to be absolutely certain of anyone's sex nowadays. But there are certain ways by which one can make a fairly well-informed guess.

Such as:

Does it stamp its foot when it gets angry? It's a woman. Does it go around kicking wastebaskets when it loses its temper. It's a man.

Can it zipper up all its zippers by itself? That's a he. Must it ask for help, particularly when the zipper is in back? That's a she.

Does it seem to think that money grows on trees? That's a wife. Does it spend a great part of its married life insisting that money doesn't grow on trees? That's a husband.

Can it quaff a dry Martini without batting an eye? Salute a real he man. Can't it ever sip a Similar language giving judges power to boost penalties after conviction in certain cases and included in separate pending crime bills.

The House bill also includes a spending ceiling of $6 million in each of the three years to hire an additional 300 narcotics agents. The administration hadn't sought it nor was it in the Senate bill.

The package covers habituates, amphetamines, hallucinogens, tranquilizers and marijuana and includes a section to control imports and exports of such hard narcotics as heroin.

It would reduce from a felony to a misdemeanor illegal possession of controlled drugs by an individual for his own use. Otherwise, possession would remain a felony.

A sentence of 10 years to life would be mandatory for organized pushers.

But, with solid Republican backing, Rep. Richard H. Poff, R-Va., added authority for the judge to levy sentences up to 25 years for special dangerous offenders even though lower terms were imposed after conviction. His amendment was approved on a 147-61 non-record vote.

The bill also:

- Authorizes $75 million over three years for community mental health centers, expanding the scope for special facilities to rehabilitate drug-dependent persons.
- Authorizes $39 million for drug abuse education.
- Requires registration of those engaged in handling of drugs including manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers. Doctors also would have to keep records on certain drugs dispensed to patients.
- Gives the Department of Health, Education and Welfare veto authority over Justice department recommendations that a drug needs to be controlled.
- Requires first-offense punishment to be twice that otherwise prescribed if a person over 18 sells drugs to one below 21.
- Creates a presidential commission to report to Congress within one year on problems of marijuana use and in two years on causes of drug abuse.

Congress Car Leasing Cut

WASHINGTON (AP) — No more will favored members of Congress be able to lease Lincoln Continentals for $750 a year. From now on, Ford Motor Co. says, they'll have to pay $3,600 a year like everybody else.

Ford announced it is abandoning its practice of cut-rate leases for representatives and senators with the start of the 1971 model year.

Martini without sipping, "My, it's so strong." Just another average woman.

Did you say it loves to dine by candlelight and read love poetry by firelight? That's the girl. How about the one that wants to turn out all the lights and get back to the sofa? That's her boyfriend.

Does it reach for the restaurant check ostentatiously and say aloud, "No, George, it is only fair that I treat you this time—I'd lose my pride if I didn't." That is one of the new liberated females. Does it just silently reach over and take the check out of her unprotesting hands and pay it? That's just another unliberated male.

When it feels blue, does it like to sit down and cry on the nearest shoulder? Just another Jane. Does it prefer to head for the nearest bar and tell its troubles, standing up, to a bartender? Just another Joe.

Yes, by hook or by crook, we can usually tell the sexes apart. The problem of keeping them apart we'll leave for another day.

Brown, 66, will serve until a permanent appointment is made by the 1971 legislature. Mrs. Rosa Zagnoni Marloni, who died recently, was the state's poet laureate.

Insurance Firm Seeks Rate Hike

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Insurance Commission was asked Thursday to approve a 20.2 per cent increase in the liability, comprehensive and collision insurance rates of Horace Mann Mutual Insurance Co. of Springfield, Ill.

The Arkansas Education Association, which purchases its policies exclusively from the firm, opposed the proposal. The firm received a 22 per cent increase last November.

Ross Gamble, actuary for the insurance company, said the increase was needed to meet the projected costs of the company. He argued that the rates were not excessive since they were half the rate charged by other insurance companies.

Kenneth L. McIntosh, actuary for the Insurance Commission, said he had found "serious discrepancies in the figuring of premiums and losses claimed by the company." He said that one of the average figures used in the company's presentation was greater than any figure used to determine the average.

"This is like taking your weight and my weight and finding an average that is greater than any one of our single weights," he said. "It is impossible."

Currently, Horace Mann automobile insurance is part of the AEA benefits offered to the state's teachers.

Forrest Rozzell, executive secretary of the AEA, is a director of the insurance company.

Nixon Plans Meet With Peace Group

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon, who leaves Sunday for a nine-day trip to five European countries, will meet in Ireland with U.S. representatives to the Paris peace talks.

The White House announced Thursday the President will discuss the Vietnam peace talks with chief negotiator David K.E. Bruce at Killrush House, 12 miles west of Tipperary.

Mrs. Nixon will accompany the President through most of the trip, but will stay in Rome Monday while he and Secretary of State William P. Rogers visit ships of the 6th Fleet in the Mediterranean.

Mrs. Nixon plans to visit Boys Town in Rome and inspect an adult literacy program. She will rejoin her husband in Naples Wednesday where he will meet with NATO's southern European commanders.

From Naples, the Nixons will fly to Belgrade — the first visit by an American president to communist Yugoslavia.

The presidential party will fly to Spain Oct. 2 where Nixon will be welcomed by Gen. Francisco Franco, his wife and high Spanish officials.

The Spanish Foreign Ministry announced today that Nixon will confer with Franco in El Prad Palace. Accompanying the

WITH THE 6TH FLEET (AP) — The U.S. 6th Fleet with its jet bombers and Marines is steaming 150 miles from the troubled Middle East with the potent Soviet Mediterranean squadron following determinedly, but politely, in its wake.

The 6th Fleet was put on alert after Arab guerrillas hijacked four jetliners two weeks ago and held their passengers hostage. The Nixon administration ordered the fleet to stand by in case help is needed in evacuating Americans from war-torn Jordan.

15 Hostages Released by Hijackers

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — King Hussein of Jordan and Palestinian guerrilla leader Yasser Arafat today announced agreement to end the civil war in Jordan. The announcement followed word from army commander Habis Majali that 15 of 54 hijacked airline passengers held hostage by Jordanian guerrillas had been freed.

Released were eight Britons, five Swiss and two West Germans. All but one of the 39 hostages who remained in the guerrillas hands were believed to be Americans. Majali said arrangements would be made quickly to get the freed passengers out of Amman.

The agreement between Hussein, Arafat and Arab mediator Jaafar el Numairi, president of Sudan, was announced over Amman Radio. It was the first time Arafat, head of the Palestine Liberation Organization, agreed to stop fighting in nine days of bloody civil war.

The agreement followed reports on Cairo Radio that Numairi met with Arafat early today. On Wednesday Arafat had spurned a cease-fire reached between Hussein and two captured guerrilla leaders.

Field Marshal Majali said the freed airline passengers "are now in army hands preparatory to their delivery to their home countries."

He did not say how they were freed from the guerrillas.

Originally, there were some 400 hostages from three planes hijacked to the Jordanian desert Sept. 6 and 9. Most of the hostages were released earlier. The planes were blown up.

The guerrillas have demanded the release of Palestinian commandos jailed in Britain, West Germany, Switzerland and Israel as ransom for the hostages. Majali and Hussein both issued orders over Amman Radio for their troops to abide by the cease-fire after reports of more fighting around Irbid in northern Jordan.

Guerrilla broadcasts from Damascus and Baghdad said the army was making tank and artillery assaults on Palestinian positions in Amman and in Irbid through the night. Several thrusts at Irbid were halted, according to the guerrillas.

Fifty-eight foreigners, 32 of them Americans, were evacuated from Amman to Beirut Thursday, and three planes stood by for further evacuations.
